Fire District OK's Communications System

Radio Link To Add Unlimited Equipment

By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

This community has moved a step closer to having unlimited fire protection at its finger tips in case of a major disaster or outbreak of fires here.

The move was made as the Lemon Grove Fire District Board of Directors approved a $11,700 cost figure that would update radio equipment in fire vehicles.

The radio system would operate on two radio frequencies. One wave length would be strictly for local fire operations while the second would put Lemon Grove in contact with all fire agencies in San Diego County.

Until now, the district has not been able to have radio contact with either La Mesa or Spring Valley fire units.

As a member of the Heartland Mutual Aid Fire Pact, Lemon Grove has been able to utilize the help of surrounding communities' fire equipment but has not had central communications systems.

San Diego County will pick up the leadership of the program as a $94,000 appropriation was approved on Dec. 23 to allow them to set up necessary equipment for the program.

LEMON GROVE TAKES LEAD

The board of supervisors said that at least 10 communities must agree to the communications system in order to implement the program.

To date, along with Lemon Grove, the Bonita-Sunnyside, Fire District, and the Encinitas-Cardiff-Leucadia Fire Protection District have approved the program.

The total cost of the program will run around $450,000 with individual agencies having to pay out from $2,000 to $24,000 to update radio equipment.

In the first attempt made by the fire chiefs to get a program such as this underway, they failed. The second effort has called for full cooperation from all fire departments in the county.

The problem was pinpointed in the Poway fire which burned up hundreds of acres of prime water-shed land in the north county area.

It was there where equipment from all over San Diego County had to work along with the State Division of Forestry fire equipment.

MAJOR PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED

One major problem was encountered. There was no way that fire chiefs could determine where certain equipment was at, or any method that they could use to direct fire apparatus.

Even with this Heartland pact, the communications gap has been wide. It is likely that all members in the Heartland pact will participate in the program established under county rule.

With the fire season now too far away, all of these communities will have a common bond in their communications system that will allow them to move equipment rapidly and efficiently.

Last year, the fire chiefs would gather on a hill where they could get the best view possible to direct equipment.

They would have a discuss-

Monte Vista Pool Plan Adopted

From MARY BONNER
Monte Vista Correspondent

Monte Vista High School has been given approval by the Grossmont Union High School District to go ahead with plans to build a $130,000 pool on the school grounds.

The move came Monday night at the school district's board meeting. It had been the fourth time that the pool project has come in front of the board for their decision.

At the three other times, the district told the Monte Vista Swimming Pool Association, an organization of school backers for the special construction project, that cost estimates of operations of the pool would have to be lowered.

At first, a figure of $30,000 had been indicated to the board for operational costs. The Swimming Association trimmed the cost figure down to $19,194 to get approval of the project.

The group of interested citizens must provide to the district, at no cost, the aquatic center on the Monte Vista High School campus.

The pool will be located above the football field according to school officials.

It will be utilized in the expansion of the physical education program as well as a facility for competitive swimming programs and recreation.

Robert Brady, principal at the school said, "Most of the money needed for the pool had been pledged some time ago. We are going to have to double check now, and see who is still willing to remain on the list, with their pledges standing."

OLYMPIC SIZE POOL

The pool is expected to be of Olympic size. This will allow the school to use it in competitive swimming as well as allowing other competition at the site.

Dr. Austin Seller, superintendent of the school district told this newspaper some time ago that he was in favor of a pool at the school, providing that a suitable financial agreement could be worked out.

Monte Vista will be the only school in the district to have a free swimming pool.

As a matter of fact the school was the only one who had expressed interest in such a program with the exception of Mt. Miguel.

Mt. Miguel, also located in Spring Valley, has a committee investigating the possibility of building a pool at that high school.

FRESHMEN MAKE PUSH
At Mt. Miguel, a group called SWIM (Swimming Wanted In Mt. Miguel) has taken over the drive for the pool from the freshmen class that had initiated the action.

During the Christmas vacation, some of the students went on the air at television station KFMB to tell the people of the desire for a pool. Action is still pending by that group.

At Monte Vista, before any further action can take place, an architect must be hired to do the necessary ground work. To meet all board adopted standards for donated facilities.

Board members had expressed concern earlier, that if they allowed Monte Vista to go ahead with such a program, they felt that other schools in the district would follow suit.

It was felt then that any additional financial requests made to the school district would not be able to be handled without problems resulting.

Meningitis Strikes 2 at MV High

Two Monte Vista High School teenagers are improving after being struck this week with meningitis, it was reported Tuesday by officials of the school.

The victims are Patricia Larabee, 16 and Kimberly Herr, 15. Warnings have been sent home to parents of youngsters who have been in close contact with either girl. The girls are friends and sit near each other in study hall but have not been in close contact with one another, school officials said.

Dr. J. B. Askew, county health director, said the two cases are probably not related to each other.

Incubation period is only three days and early identification of the disease is important. Askew said the disease is common to this time of the year and that 20-28 cases a year occur in San Diego County.

Persons who have had close contact with either girl are advised to see their family physician.

There is no plan to quarantine the school. School officials said that communications regarding developments will be kept open to avert rumors and prevent panic.

Both girls were in a coma Tuesday at different hospitals — a condition described as normal in the early stages of the disease.

Chris Cosner Named As Top Helix High English Scholar

Chris Cosner, senior at Helix High School, has been cited as one of the outstanding high school students of English in the country.

The National Council of Teachers of English has named him a 1968 national winner in its annual Achievement Awards competition.

Last spring a committee of English teachers from Helix nominated Cosner to represent Helix in the competition. The nation's schools nominated almost 8,500 students for the NCTE citation. Of that number, only 800 finalists were chosen. They represent over 600 schools from 50 states, the District of Columbia, and American Preparatory Schools abroad.

In announcing the winners, Robert F. Hogan, executive secretary of the National Council of Teachers of English, stated that the Council recommends these students for college scholarships in 1969.

The names of these students are sent to every college and university admissions officer in the country.

In previous years, 99 per cent of the Awards winners entered the college of his choice. Approximately 80 per cent of those applying for scholarships received financial aid.

The NCTE sends to all winners and runner-ups scrolls of recognition and it honors their high school English department with certificates of merit.

Mrs. Natalie Barry, Mr. Charles D. Higby, and Mr. Clovis L. Hill have been Cosner's English instructors at Helix High School. Cosner's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cosner, 5800 Marengo rd., La Mesa.

Amphetamine Abuse is Costly

ITEM: A study being conducted at Grossmont High School District will show 20% - 25% of students to have had dangerous drug experience.

ITEM: The Do-It-Now Foundation, a non-profit, charitable and educational organization of Los Angeles, whose main function is designed to curb drug abuse, particularly amphetamine among teen-agers, made much of the following material available.

ITEM: All types of drug abuse have increased sharply since 1960 and the resultant wave of emotional and economic destruction is only now becoming apparent.

This study regards one drug — the killer drug — "Speed" and only one aspect of the results of amphetamine abuse; economics. The spiritual and emotional damage is yet to be measured.

One of the theories of why the problem has reached such enormous proportions is the breakdown of trust and communication between authoritative sources of anti-drug information and the young adult community. The division was over the broad category of drugs called "psychedelics" or "hallucinogenics". As young people experimented with these drugs they become more skeptical of the information source. The dire results predicted did not occur immediately. The breakdown of trust opened the drug door wide but the warnings issued about psychedelics are now becoming true in regard to newer and more powerful drugs in the amphetamine category.

The pattern of amphetamine abuse follows closely the pattern of heroin. In both, the tolerance factors demands larger and larger doses to achieve the same degree of "high". This guarantees that the amphetamine user will have to use a progressively larger bankroll to satisfy his need. There is a vast difference between the two drugs. Heroin is an opiate, is physically addictive. It relaxes physically and mentally. Amphetamines causes no classic withdrawal suffering and therefore is not considered physically addictive. Amphetamine causes hyperactivity and abuses the body by using all the stored up energy and reserve tissue that the body saves for emergency situations. The end result is a badly deteriorated body and mind from overactivity and the toxic effects of the drug.

Here are seven signs to look for in "Speed" addiction:

- Red injection marks on arms, back of legs and neck veins.
- Yellowing of skin
- Extreme appetite variations
- Loss of weight
- Periods of paranoia, hyperactivity, and disorganized

NEW HIGH SCHOOL PLANNED

Board Reinstates Thirty Students

Grossmont Union High School District school board officials have reinstated 30 students who had been expelled from the district for narcotics violations.

The students, part of a 17,000 student population in the district were allowed to return to school after one semester of not going to school.

Dr. Austin R. Sellery, superintendent of the district indicated that 30 other students are going to face expulsion from the district when the board meets again in Feb.

In other board action, the district focused its eyes on construction of another high school, with an initial cost of $4 million expected.

The facility would be designed to take care of 1,500 students in the early phases. A total enrollment of 3,000 would be the final goal of the new school.

The school would be the ninth in the district. District officials indicated that they would be aiming for an opening date of 1972.

The new facility would allow for a comprehensive curriculum program. An instructional program that is compatible with the exception of the community to be served is another consideration that will be made.

A planning committee will be set up by the district. It will consist of a principal, chairman, selected teachers, a counselor or psychologist, the superintendent and an architect.

Board members were requested by Dr. Sellery to submit a recommendation for an appointment of a principal for the new school.

Sensitivity Training Groups Complete Training in Grove

A number of sensitivity training groups have completed an eight week series of studies at the United Church of Christ, Congregational, Lemon Grove.

At the same time, officials announced that new groups will be formed within the next few weeks. The Rev. Ernest M. Fowler, minister of the church is in charge of the program.

Led by facilitators who have been trained in the field of psychology at San Diego State College and other centers, the groups are open not only to members of the church, but other interested people in the Lemon Grove area.

Donald Tarr and Eugene Hall, who have acted as facilitators for the groups just concluding, have expressed a burning excitement about the potential for growth which the groups offer to their participants.

The enhancement of interpersonal relationships is the big objective of the groups, they indicated.

They are being increasingly used in many industries all over the country. Educational institutions have added features of this sort for their teachers and administrators.

A reasonable fee is charged for tuition for the groups, but scholarships are made available to those who do not have the funds.

The facilitators also emphasized the fact that these groups are not designed so much for sick people in the treating of mental illnesses.

They are designed rather for well people who desire to become more adequate, open, fully operating people.

They are available to young as well as old and will be scheduled for eight to ten week periods with the possibility that marathon groups running twenty-four to forty-eight hours may also become available in the near future.

Interested people who are anxious to know more about the groups and the possibility of participation in them may call the church office, 466-0503.

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Events leading to the first exploration of the Californias were linked with the Spanish expansion into the Western World. The "Conquista de Mexico" (The Conquering of Mexico) had taken place some twenty years earlier. Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo was with the troops of Cortes when the Indian capital fell to the "conquistadores."

In the intervening years Cabrillo had continued exploration and settlement activities to the south of Mexico where he became a large land owner, a well known boat builder, and prominent resident of Guatemala. Magellan had found a southern sea route from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The king of Spain wished to locate and control a northern sea route which would offer a more direct route from Acapulco to the ports of Spain.

Alvarado was given the responsibility to gather the boats, men, and supplies needed to search for the legendary northern route. Alvarado asked Cabrillo to build the boats for the expedition. But before Alvarado began the expedition, he died, and Cabrillo was assigned to lead the venture.

Thus Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, while searching for a northern sea route, became the first recorded explorer to see the shores of California, enter the bay of San Diego, and claim it for the king of Spain. Some expressions which relate to this event appear in the practice phrases below and may be heard when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

Say "Cabrillo era un soldado." (kah-BREE-yoh EH-rah oon sohl-DAH-doh) for "Cabrillo was a soldier."

Say "Era una persona honorable." (EH-rah OON-nah pehr-SOH-nah ohn-oh-RAH-leh) for "He was an honorable person."

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Tenia dos naves." (teh-NEE-ah dohs NAH-vehs) for "He had two boats."

Say "Hizo una exploracion." (EE-soh OON-nah ehs-ploh-rah-see-OHN) for "He made an exploration."

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Llego a San Diego." (yeh-GOH ah sahn-dee-EH-goh) for "He arrived at San Diego."

Say "Fue buen Capitan." (foe-EH boo-EHN kah-pee-TAHN) for "He was a good Captain."

What's doing?

Nobody's perfect. Once in awhile you may find a pay telephone that swallows your dime instead of returning it to you. If this ever happens, our apologies. To get it back, just dial the Operator from another phone. She'll return your second dime and arrange for a refund on the one you lost. And if you'll give her the number of the telephone in trouble, she'll see that it's repaired as quickly as possible.

If you're one of those people who can't seem to get down to writing letters, you'll be glad to know that a three-minute long distance call will replace about a two-page letter for you! It's a fact: during a three-minute call you can say just about all the words you'd probably be writing—as many as 450 of them. An added advantage to calling: in most cases you get answers to your questions and the comments you're after without waiting for days. Plenty can be covered during such a telephone call, but it's helpful to jot down some notes on what you want to say before you call. When you keep in touch with friends and family by phone, you can get a lot more understanding and a lot quicker—for surprisingly little.

Here's an inexpensive and practical item you'll want to know about. It's a separate, personal listing in the telephone directory for various members of your household. These listings are particularly helpful if anyone in your home has a last name that's different from yours. Each additional name listed in the directory is only 35¢ a month. For information, call your local Business Office.

UNLIMITED HOT WATER: Richard Long (right), president of Diving Unlimited of La Mesa was on hand Thursday night at the Tea Pot Inn where he told members of the Lemon Grove Lions Club about a major breakthrough that his organization has made in probing the depths of the ocean. Long brought a dummy along with him as part of the program to show club members how the diving suit that will be used in part of Sea Lab III works. He told the men that hot water circulates throughout the suit and passes out through the finger tips of gloves worn by divers. The hot water allows divers to go down in deeper waters for longer periods of time. Prior to now, the coldness of the water held up operations. Also shown in the photo are Fred Dixon, assistant fire chief of Lemon Grove and Bob Russell, president of the Lions Club.

Mount Miguel Puts Special Education Formula Into Use

There's a new teaching formula being used at Mt. Miguel high school: Sportsman-ship - Competition - a lively, interesting geography class. This formula, used by Bradley Underwood, a Title I teacher, really means letting his classes "get interested" in geography by taking them away from textbooks - out to where geography is: the hills, mountains and deserts. Many of the class' survival hikes, as Mr. Underwood calls them, last from one to four days. They are meant to teach the students to take care of themselves and survive in the wilderness with only a small amount of food and water. They also teach students many geography skills such as using surveying equipment, map reading, map making, and the qualities of sportsmanship and leadership. His students will take specialized field trips this year which will enable them to learn geology, mineralogy, fossil-finding, and the secrets of the woods. "We take them on trips equal in roughness with the Marine Corps," Underwood explained, adding, "on most trips we allow each boy 8 ozs. of food, two canteens of water, and one blanket. Most boys, who are eager to go on the four day Santa Rosa Wilderness hike to the Colorado River, have already completed the requirements for doing so by going on one archaeological survival hike and one other survival hike. Later during the school year, the entire class will compete with students from El Capitan high school to learn which school has achieved highest goal of outdoorsman-ship during the year. The only requirement needed to be eligible to participate in the competition is interest.

Underwood, whose main interest is archaeology, is hoping to start a summer school archaeological class where he would be able to spend the entire summer taking students on excursions to dig up artifacts from ice-age civilizations.

Other scheduled field trips for Title I students include a trip to San Diego State College to visit the anthropology library and also trips to the Old Globe for small groups to work as ushers.

Spanish Class Takes New Dimension At Mt. Miguel

Miss Ann Alderson, Spanish teacher at Mt. Miguel High School, has taken on a new responsibility this year.

She is teaching the newly formed "English As A Second Language" class for foreign speaking students.

Out of 31 students, Miss Alderson has 28 in the program who speak Spanish. "Many could not speak a word of English when they arrived," commented Miss Alderson.

According to her, local newspapers have been a great help to the Spanish speaking student.

The students clip out newspaper articles and read them aloud to the entire class, making a list of the words they are not familiar with. The whole class then learns these words and adds them to their English vocabulary.

In addition to attending ESL everyday, the students take other regular classes offered such as math, science and regular English classes.

The program has become a real success at Mt. Miguel, in fact, Miss Alderson has had to turn away some students this year, and she hopes the program can be expanded by next September.

The only other school in the Grossmont High School District having this program is Granite Hills. Robert Bunting, assistant director of Educational Operations in the Grossmont District, believes that the ESL program is one of the biggest advances in any high school scholastic pro-

ECONOMICS

Now here is the economic facts of costs to Los Angeles County for one year:

LEGAL COSTS:

Arrests (17,813) X arrest and processing costs ($500 each arrest) $8,906,500.
Felony Drug Trials (4,864) X Trial and Processing costs ($900 average) $4,377,600
Felony Convictions (3,951) X jail terms (6 months average at $1,600) $6,321,600.

WELFARE COSTS:

Funds to spouse and children during incarceration ($1,134) X (3,951) convictions $4,480,434.
Loss of earning power while jailed ($3,340) X (3,951) convictions $13,196,340
Rehabilitative costs (3 years parole time) parole officers, psychiatric counseling, administration $7,111,800
Total $44,394,274

Studies also show that there are now approximately 10,000 users in L.A. County. 5,000 of these steal to support the habit. Using 20% as a factor for cash-out on stolen goods to acquire the estimated annual amphetamine cost of $5,475, the theft loss is $27,375 for each thief-user $136,875,000.

Theoretically, the other users are capable of paying their $5,475 a year costs $27,375,000

The total of $208,644,274 is extremely costly for a county even as large as Los Angeles and the brain and physical damage, heartbreak and family breakup isn't even included.

On a money basis alone the amphetamine use should be stopped. It could be if the courts were encouraged to enforce the laws now on the books.

Matmen Continue Winning Streak To 10 Straight

By SCOTT McGAUGH

Monte Vista Sports Writer

The Monte Vista High School wrestling squad kept their perfect record in tact last Friday by trouncing a weak El Capitan team, 40-6, on the loser's mats.

The Monarchs picked up 10 individual wins with five being pins. Monarch picking up five-point wins were Gary Gilbert, Gary Nutting, Jerry Lyer, Larry Millard, and Bob Skidmore.

The Monarchs took the first five matches before the Vaqueiros got on the scoreboard. The Monarch JV squad did almost as well by winning by a 37-11 margin.

Monte Vista came back the next night to beat both Holtville and Brawley High Schools by 47-0 and 29-11 scores.

Against Holtville, the Monarchs took all 12 events with six coming by way of pins. Jerry Nutting, Gary Nutting, Larry Millard, Bob Skidmore, Dan Thorpe and John Tancil.

School Evades Hong-Kong Flu Epidemic

"I don't believe the Hong Kong flu which has hit San Diego was much of an epidemic for Mt. Miguel students," says Mrs. Shirley Baker, attendance secretary at Mt. Miguel High School.

Other viruses which are taking their toll on Mt. Miguel students have caused and are causing most of the absences.

The peak for Dec. was on Friday, Dec. 20 with 554 absent, and the low was on Friday, Dec. 13 with 313 absent.

Mrs. Isabelle McCrae, the school nurse, commented, "I was just as swamped for physical education excuses because of the Asian flu epidemic last year as I am this year with the Hong Kong flu epidemic. No more than 12 to 15 students had to be sent home in the course of a day."

Absences on the parts of clerical workers on the office staff totaled 4 in one day. The largest number of teachers absent in one day was 14. Absences on the part of the administrative office aides has been moderate.

German Study-Tour Slated For Helix High Students

A group of Helix High School students are expected to study in Germany this summer in cooperation with the Ministry of Education, North Rhine-Westphalia, and the American Institute for Foreign Study.

Students will reside in the Norokirchen Paace, a Rhine-land castle, near Munster, Germany, in the Rhine Valley.

They will take two classes each morning and will go sight-seeing in the afternoon. The one required class will be a German language class.

The other will be a class either in German art, architecture, or history. Teachers will be university professors.

Chaperones are Miss Anne-dorothea Kohls, German teacher at Grossmont High School.

To date eight Grossmont District students have signed to go, five now attend Helix.

The study trip will begin July 21 and end Aug. 30. The first three days of the trip students will be in London visiting such sights as Westminster Abbey and the Tower of London.

Then they will journey to Brussels where they will visit the Grand Palace. A visit to Cologne is planned for a tour of the cathedral.

At the duration of classes, a two-day excursion is planned to visit both Berlins. Students will go to Bonn to hear senate talks.

A visit to Luxenbourg, Reims, and World War I battlefields will follow. Paris will be the last stop filled with three days of sight-seeing.

The trip will cost each student $1,300. This includes $780 for tuition, travel expenses, and spending money.

"This is a very worthwhile study program which will enable students to learn more about Germany and become more fluent German speakers," Knott said.

LIGHTS GO OUT...

Highlanders Slam El Cajon, 103-56 As Power Failure Delays Hoop Game

By DON KIENER
Helix Sports Writer

A power failure hit El Cajon High School last Friday night, in more ways than one.

For 45 minutes there were no lights, and when they came on, there was almost no game, as the El Cajon five were shocked by Helix, 103-56.

"We weren't trying to run up the score," said Scottie Mensor, who scored a career high of 29 points. "It was his best all-around game of the year," said Nash.

El Cajon, who boasts a similar offensive attack as Monte Vista (who beat the Highlanders, 58-52, a week earlier), was never really in the game as the Scots jumped to any early 22-3 lead after just 5 minutes of play, and led 47-19 at intermission.

"Our defense was the difference," said Nash. "The boys made up their minds to play tough defense, and it shook them (El Cajon) up."

The Highlander attack was led by senior guard Bruce Mensor, who scored a career high of 29 points. "It was his best all-around game of the year," said Nash.

He was followed by senior forward Dave Unroe, who scored 19 points while holding Dean Owens, El Cajon's leading scorer with a 12.5 per game average, scoreless. He was followed by junior forward Butch Paddock with 15.

HIGHLANDERS ARE HOT

Helix shot a hot 52 per cent from the floor and sank 35 out of 49 shots from the charity line. The Braves committed 33 fouls and the Scots 28, in the hard fought battle.

Helix was the first Gross-mont League team to surpass the 100-point barrier this season.

Tomorrow, the Highlanders will play host to Granite Hills, in preparation for their game with league leading Mt. Miguel on Tuesday.

The Matadors, who have a 35-game win-streak in loop play, have a 4-0 league slate and are 11-3 for the season. The Scots are 3-1 and 15-2 respectively.

"We're looking forward to Mt. Miguel," said Nash.

Helix Wrestlers Grab First League Victory, Dumping El Cajon, 36-8

By TOM WARREN
Helix Wrestling Correspondent

The Helix varsity wrestling team captured its first league meet of the season last Friday as they scalped El Cajon, 36-8.

Leading the Scot matmen, in what head coach Bob Lucas called, "our best match of the season," were seniors Chris Ehrentauf (156), Dale Sauter (167), and Mike Odom (Hwt.), all winning on pins.

They were backed up by Highlanders Mitch Steinhauer (101), John Berth (107), Tim Shaeffer (114), Bill Vaughn (129), Larry Davidson (140), Greg Whillock (147), and Dave Hoff (182), who all won by decision.

Coach Lucas singled out the lock, and Ehrentauf, as the most outstanding and added that he was quite satisfied with the entire team's performance.

He also noted (with the apparent satisfaction) the remark made by the El Cajon coach immediately preceding the match.

It was, "We're going to beat you today!"

Tomorrow the Scots travel to Granite Hills, for what should be one of their easier matches thus far.

A win tomorrow would leave the Highlanders with a 2-2 league record and would keep them in contention with front runners Monte Vista, Mt. Miguel, and Grossmont (currently undefeated).

Saturday the Helix JV grapplers will go into action as they enter the Monte Vista Junior Varsity Tournament on the Monarch mats.

'Black America' Program Slated For Miguel Students

The U.S. History class of Mt. Miguel High School is undergoing a change in their curriculum.

Earl Peasley, U. S. History teacher at Mt. Miguel High School, has felt there was a need for a unit entitled "The History of Black America," he changed his curriculum to be able to present this unit in the second semester.

"This unit involves more than just a study of Black History. It is a study of the nobility and frailty of human beings and its purpose is to increase the understanding of my students about black Americans."

"In the process we hope to reduce the prejudice, paternalism, and misunderstandings so prevalent in an American who is woefully uninformed about the history of black America."

Peasley later pointed out that Life magazine probably better states the purpose of the unit as "An effort to place in proper perspective this richly significant segment of the American experience."

Portions of this unit will be based on color film strips and class discussions, lectures, and directed reading. The discussions will be divided into ten sections, several of which include:

The African Past; From Freedom to Disappointment; Revolution of Black Power, and others.

In addition to magazine articles from various well known magazines, many books will be placed on the directed reading list. Some of these include "Negro in the Making of America" by Benjamin Quarles; "Who Speaks for the Negro" by Robert Penn Warren; and others.

When asked why he felt there was a need to begin a course like this at Mt. Miguel High School at this time, Peasley commented, "Our regular text books fail to cover the history of the American Negro."

Accordingly, the Negro feels that he has no past, no tradition, and — as a result — no pride. While at present there are very few Negroes at Mt. Miguel, I believe that is even more important for our Caucasian students to realize that the black man has been very important in our American past."

He continued, "This knowledge cannot help but create a new attitude of respect for a minority group whose past and present are so vital a part of our American heritage."

"Until the young white Americans forget their paternalism and patronization of black Americans, the gap between black and white will never be bridged."

"This is only a start toward better mutual understanding and respect between black and white young Americans," he said.

This is the first complete unit on Black American history taught in the Grossmont district and probably one of the first in Southern California outside the predominantly Negro schools, according to Peasley.

'Unprecedented' Increase Logged By San Diego Transit

Figures for San Diego Transit Corporation's first full calendar year of operation show an outstanding increase in passengers carried.

Total passenger count for the year ending Dec. 31 is 17,130,808 compared with 15,111,419 for 1967; a gain of 2,020,389 passengers or 13.4 per cent.

Comparisons between the months of January through June give ample proof of S.D. Transit Corp.'s remarkable gains.

These first half of 1968 totals, compared with those of 1967 when Transit was privately owned, reached a peak in May when 1,470,590 additional passengers were carried. An increase of 13.5 per cent.

More impressive, however, are the figures for the last half of the year when Transit was competing against its own increased passenger count.

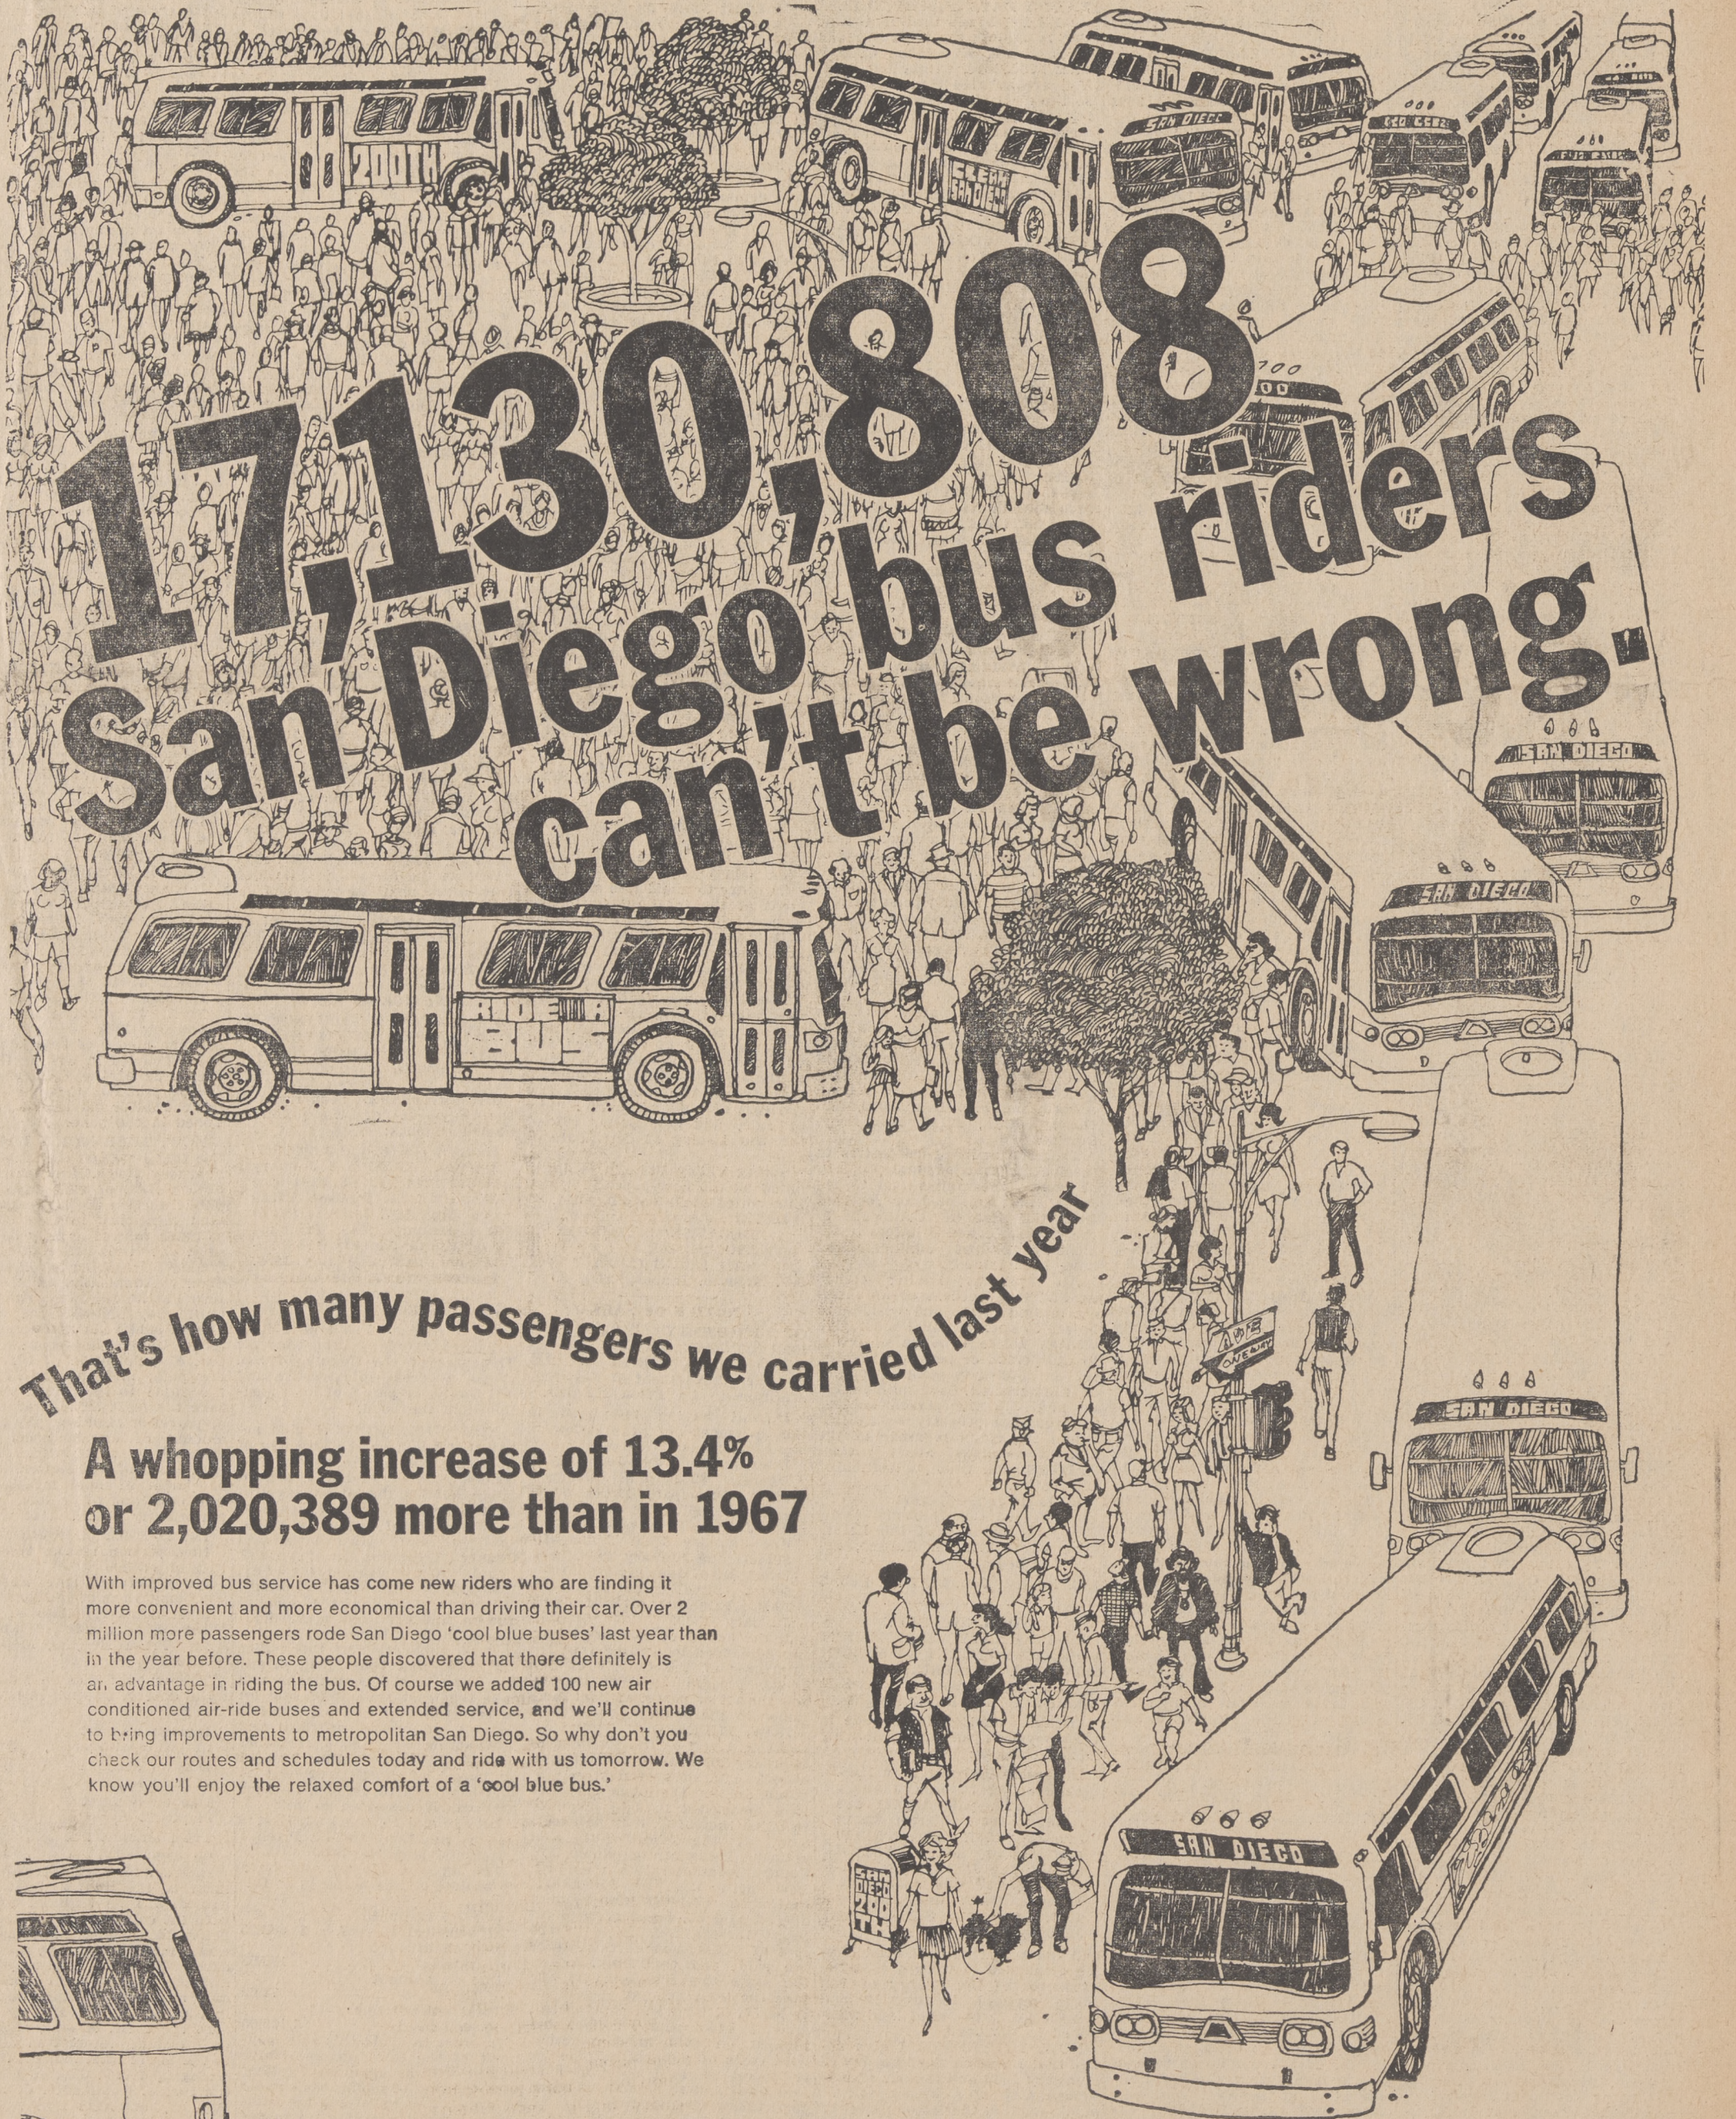

An all time high of 1,598,548 passengers were carried in October which represents an increase of 16.9 per cent more than the same month of 1967.

That's how many passengers we carried last year

A whopping increase of 13.4% or 2,020,389 more than in 1967

With improved bus service has come new riders who are finding it more convenient and more economical than driving their car. Over 2 million more passengers rode San Diego 'cool blue buses' last year than in the year before. These people discovered that there definitely is an advantage in riding the bus. Of course we added 100 new air conditioned air-ride buses and extended service, and we'll continue to bring improvements to metropolitan San Diego. So why don't you check our routes and schedules today and ride with us tomorrow. We know you'll enjoy the relaxed comfort of a 'cool blue bus.'

Come ride with us, too...you'll love it
